

I SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

AQUANARIA

MADRID FUSIÓN 2021

Aquanaria and Madrid Fusión announce the first edition of the Award for Sustainability that aims to know the most sustainable Project related to the world of gastronomy, taking into account the objectives of sustainable development of the UN 2030 agenda, and that demonstrates that the principles of sustainability are part of its business philosophy.

The mentioned award will be regulated by the following

RULES

1. Participants must send a dossier (maximum one page) explaining why their work experiences are sustainable, and that it has to be accompanied by two photographs in high resolution, minimum 300 dpi, in. Jpg format.

The documentation, along with the personal data (name of the participant and the restaurant, email and telephone number), should be sent by email to ana@madridfusion.net (to the attention of Ana García-Lomas).

2. The deadline for the receipt of documentation is May 9th, 2021.

3. Among all the dossiers received, the representatives of Madrid Fusión and Aquanaria will select the 5 restaurants that will go to the final.

4. The final will take place on June 1st during Madrid Fusión 2021.

5. The finalists will be summoned to meet on the stage where the jury, made up of specialized journalists and prestigious chefs, as well as by gastronomic and food industry specialists, will proclaim one award winner.

6. The winner will receive a prize consisting of:

- A recycled metal sculpture made by Mikel Aranburu "the artist of the fish" as a trophy;
- A donation of € 4,000 destined to a NGO chosen by the winner, and whose area of activity reflects one of the sustainable development objectives by the UN agenda;
- An invitation to visit the Aquanaria facilities in the Canary Islands.

7. The travel and accommodation expenses of the participants going to the final are on their own.

8. Aquanaria reserves the right to include the information of the winner and their images in its corporate media (catalogs, brochures, web, social networks, etc.), as well as to reproduce the recipes at any time.

9. Aquanaria reserves the right to suspend, postpone, cancel or modify the duration of the contest at any time prior to its end, always that there are causes that justify it, such as the change of dates of celebration by the Madrid Fusión organization if there is a critical health situation .

#madridfusion2021